ADMINISTRATION FACES CHALLENGE

Superintendent, William R. Johnsen

"I'm delighted that there was help from the state to get all of our teachers back plus some . . . !" was Superintendent William Johnsen's comment about the financial state of the White River School District. In the spring of '75, White River had lost several teachers due to the double levy failure.

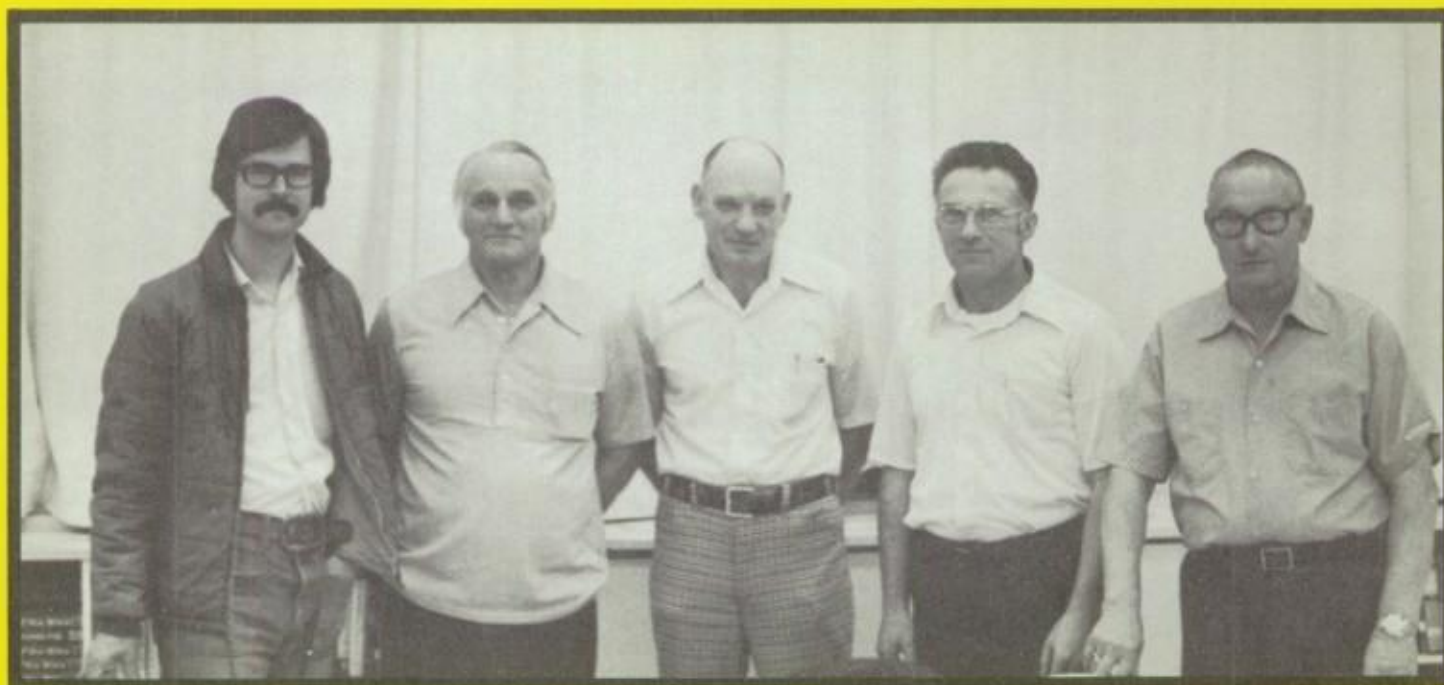

The High School population expanded from 485 students to the present 525. Plans have been made to renovate the old junior high building to accommodate extra students.

COUNCIL CAPTURES INTEREST

Bucky Chandler addresses a meeting.

Student Council planned a prosperous and productive year.

The members started a Positive Attitude Bug Club (P.A.B.), which was designed to improve the students' attitude toward the school, fellow classmates, and faculty. Activities such as painting the log, improving the school's appearance, and making the holidays more enjoyable for the community were just a few of the projects planned.

The Student Council feels this year was very successful.

The officers were: Bucky Chandler, President; Kevin Hanson, Vice-President; Suzanne Odd, Secretary-Treasurer; and Maura Tait, Inter-High Representative; Advisor, George Young.

J.V. Cheerleaders are Becky Baydek, Donna Gizinski, Cheryl Cline, Pam Gizinski, and Debbie Anderson.

For the second year in a row the White River cheerleaders took home the superior ribbon from cheerleading camp in Ellensburg, Washington.

Under the leadership of Queen Filomena Talens, the cheerleaders feel they had an excellent year because of staff unity and spirit.

Because three Junior Varsity cheerleaders moved at the year's beginning, three new members were elected by the student body. They were Pam Gizinski, Cheryl Cline, and Debbie Anderson. They cheered for the Hornets along with Queen Becky Baydek and Donna Gizinski.

Freshmen cheerleaders were Neysa Krueger, Devan Tschumperlin, Terri Anderson, and Janet Flink, and Marci King.

JUNIORS TAKE TESTS FOR COLLEGE

With Patti Burton elected as their class president, the Juniors started the year getting their class rings, taking tests for college, and sponsoring after-game dances. Juniors participated in school activities. College-bound members took the National Merit Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test and the Washington Pre-College Test.

The Class of '77 anticipates an eventful senior year guided by class advisors: Chairman Dan Linnell, Susan Kaufman, Bill Hodder, Trena Page, and Jennifer Leach.

Although the 1975 Hornet football team lost its first five games, it was a much better team than the 3-6 win-loss record showed. The Hornets opened the season at home with narrow losses to Orting and cross-river rival Enumclaw in a pair of non league games. In the Seamount League regular season the Hornets continued their lack of offense which led them to being shut out in the first three league contests. Still, the team was not out of any game (except the loss to AA Champion Sumner) due to the tenacious defense they exhibited in the close road games with Fife and Foster.

The team showed vast improvement in notching their first league and season victory against Mt. Si before a large Hornet home crowd, and continued its winning ways with a convincing victory over Peninsula at Purdy. The Hornets then faced Enumclaw in the annual "Battle of the Hornets," in which both teams fought to a tie at the end of regulation time. But Enumclaw won out by scoring in their first possessions of the overtime period to win by a touchdown. The season finale was the Homecoming game against Tahoma which resulted in an easy victory and a happy ending for the season.

Coach Funk was pleased with the progress his young team made during the course of the season. He also stated, "We just couldn't come up with the scores when we needed it most," which appropriately summarized the season--close but not close enough.

J.V. PROSPECTS LOOK BRIGHT

Future Hornet football hopes are very bright due to the fine showing that the JV's made in the league's standings, finishing second with a 4 win, 1 loss, 1 tie record.

The JV's opened the season against Fife and rolled up an easy victory. After being shut out by Sumner the following week, they exploded for three consecutive wins against Foster, Mt. Si, and Peninsula.

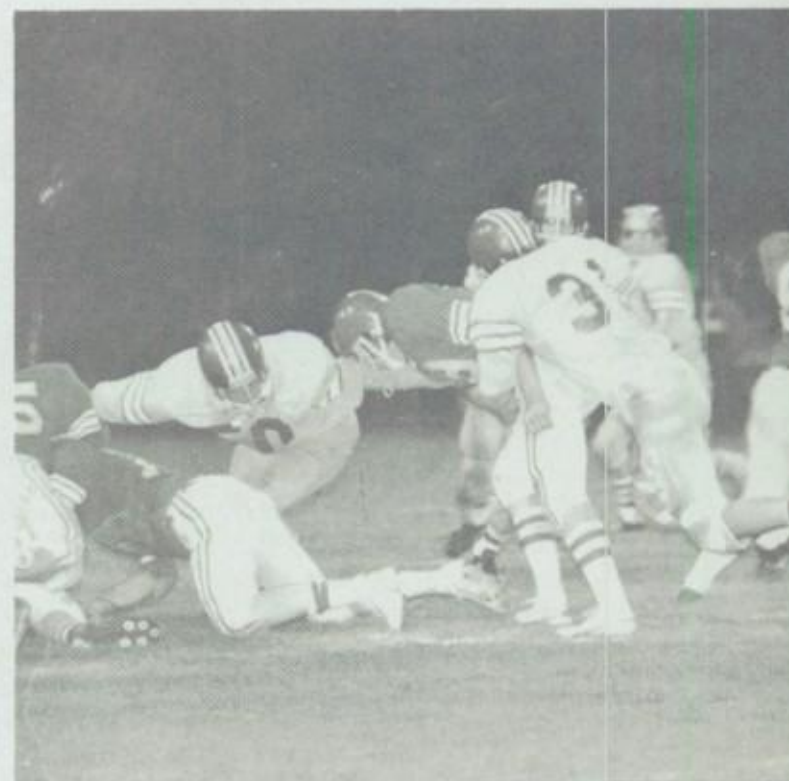

Sheldon Satterthwaite breaks one loose with a good second effort.

A tough Hornet defense drops Sumner for a loss.

GOLFERS ARE COMPETITIVE

Rod Tatman, Tom McFadden, Mike Dean, Doug Whitehouse, Terry Hurley, Darren Reuter, Coach Dan Linnell, Brett Johnsen, Dan Funk, Pat Taylor, Rick Jones, Glen Larsen, Sam Belnap.

The Hornet golf team compiled a 3 win 11 loss record in its first year as a member of the Seamount League. Having the team was doubtful due to problems providing funds for a coach, but support from the Booster Club enabled the team to get started just two days before the season was scheduled to begin.

In its first match the team met a tough course and a tough foe in bowing to Peninsula. The golfers then lost a close one to Fife before getting on the winning side of the ledger by thumping Tahoma 46-24 with Rick Jones leading the way as medalist. After hitting a dry spell for their next five matches, they upended a strong Fife team 39-35 with Doug Whitehouse paving the way as high scorer for the Hornets. The team ran into tough competition for the next three matches and came out on the short-end every time. The final victory of the season came against the MT. Si Wildcats 42-39 as Doug Whitehouse captured medalist honors. The team closed the league season by losing its final match, but had a very strong showing in the league medalist tournament finishing in fourth place behind league and state powerhouses Sumner, Enumclaw, and Foster.

The Hornets top five golfers for the season were: Doug Whitehouse, playing in all 14 matches with an average of 9.4 points per match; Dan Funk, playing in 11 matches averaging 8.8; Rick Jones performing in 10 matches while averaging 8.6; Mike Dean, playing in 10 matches with an 8.1 average; and Sam Belnap who also compiled an 8.1 average while playing in 11 matches. Other varsity players were Rod Tatman, Darern Reuter, and Glen Larsen.

GRAPPLERS BUILD FOR FUTURE

If one were to sum up the 1975-76 Hornet Wrestling Team in one word, that word would be inconsistency. The team was up and down all season, mainly due to a lack of experience. Due to this fact the Hornets did well in one match and poor in the next one.

Coach Ross's comments were, "We just could not get enough steam for a string of matches." He continued on further by praising Kerry Heisserman, Stu Biegler, and Jay Jacobs. He also commended seniors Rick Jones and Kerry Heisserman for their leadership and enthusiasm.

The team highlights of the year were taking first in the Vashon Take-down Tournament and 4th in the Bethel Invitational.

This year's Hornet cagers had tough acts to follow. The 1973 Hornets had been the State "A" Champs; the 1974 and 1975 teams were Seamount League Champs. Graduation depleted last year's team so much that defending previous league crowns would be quite a task. Even with this pressure, spirit and enthusiasm reigned as the team opened its season.

Meeting powerhouse Orting was a tough opening for the squad. After a close first period, the Cardinals pulled away in the last three seconds to claim an easy victory. The team showed promise after defeating both Decatur and Vashon twice before a rematch with Orting. In that game the team played very well, emerging with a 7 point win.

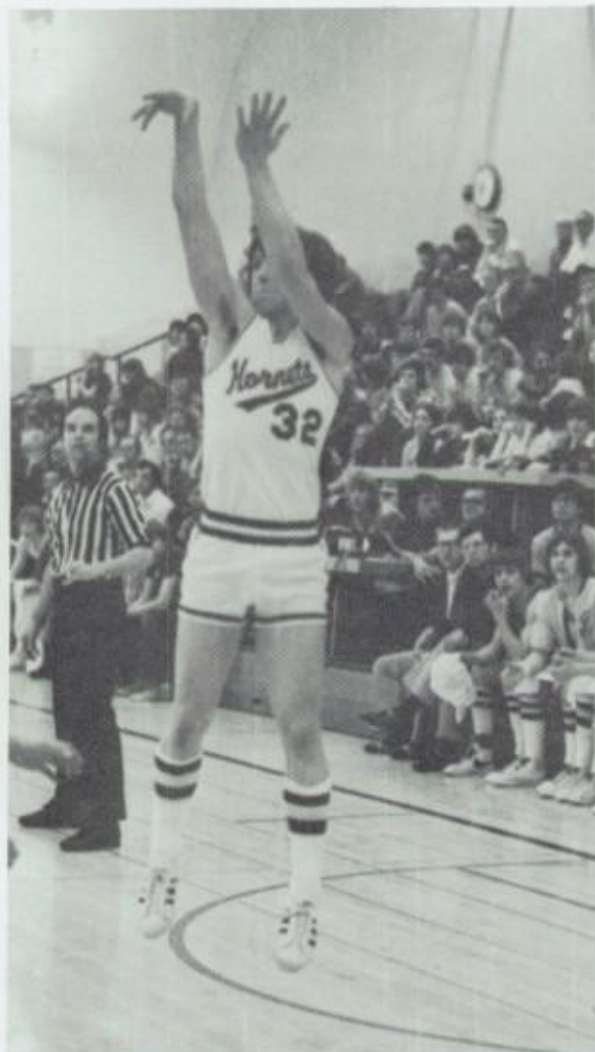

The league season opener was against cross-river foe Enumclaw. The rival Hornets took command early, in claiming an easy 26 point victory. Mt. Si was next on the list and provided stiff competition as they broke our home court victory string at 24 games. Then, after losing a close one to Sumner, the Hornets captured their first two league victories with easy wins over both Foster and Tahoma. The team had a letdown in bowing to Fife in its next contest, but rebounded for a victory over Peninsula. In the second half of the season the team showed that it was no pushover as it whipped 5 out of 7 opponents, losing only to league champions Enumclaw 62-61 and Sumner 55-47.

The team's second season began with a one game playoff with Port Townsend for the lone district berth to the State Tournament. In a very close and tension-filled game, the Redskins height proved to be too much for the Hornets as they claimed a 3 point win.

Coach Blanusa was pleased with the team's season. He noted that the errors it made were due mostly to inexperience. He also added that we were beaten badly only twice and could have won many of the close decisions we lost.

Randy Johnson shoots over defenders.

SPIRITED GIRL HOOPSTERS LACK HEIGHT

When asked about this year's Girls' Basketball team Coach Trena Page responded, "The girls have improved greatly; the only disadvantage they have is their height. If we qualify against "A" schools we should do pretty well." That last statement concerned the girls' chances at the class "A" Tournament held at Central Washington State College this year.

VOLLEYBALL WENT TO STATE!

This year's volleyball team went to the Class A tournament held in Cheney, Washington. To spur them on several senior boys held a pep assembly which was a different change of pace and quite fun for all. Unfortunately; the girls lost their first two games at the tournament, but Coach Trena Page felt they had a successful season because they improved greatly from the beginning of the season.

There are high hopes for a successful season among the Hornet Baseballers, with three returning starters along with a talented group of seniors, inexperience doesn't seem to be a problem facing the Hornets this year. With their experience and spunk this year's team has a good chance to finish high in the Seamount League, along with the district and regional tournaments in which it has placed high the last three seasons.

A tough schedule faces the Hornets this year. They will play 14 games against Seamount foes and 8 nonleaguers against the Nisqually League teams: Eatonville, Orting, Vashon, and Charles Wright. Including in this schedule are night games against Enumclaw and Foster.

TENNIS HAS HIGH HOPES

The tennis team looks toward a good season this year. Everybody returns this year including letter winners Dan Funk, Brett Johnson, George Anselmo, Dave Smith, Bucky Chandler, Maura Tait, and Monica Sagnella. The season last year only showed 2 wins for the netters but most of the matches were by close margins. Dan Funk is also promising as he took 4th in district last year.

WHITE RIVER KEEPS ON TRACKIN'

Track hopes are high following last year's performance in both seasonal and state meet results. The Hornet tracksters compiled a 3-2 win-loss record last year to go along with their 6th place finish in the State "A" Championship.

With returnees in almost all events and good talent to replace last year's losses, Coach Ross said that this year's team should do even better.

Ken Sutphin does his thing.

Scott Hubbard works for State.

Greg Weickum bounds toward a win.

FRESHMEN LOSE CLOSE GAMES

Pat Hurley evades his tacklers.

Although the Frosh lost all five of their games, their record could have been much better with any luck at all. They were all very close games, being decided by either a touchdown or an extra point. The Frosh opened the season against Tahoma and lost a close one by one point. After losing close games to both Mt. Si. and Peninsula, the team battled Enumclaw but its effort fell short by a touchdown. The highlight of the year was playing league champion Shownalter in a night game, which they again lost by a touchdown.

Coach Hahto summed up the season with this comment, "We had the ball on the opponent's one or two yard line almost every game but just couldn't put it over. We could've won."

INJURIES HAMPER FRESHMEN BASKETBALL

Luke Scott goes for two.

Pat Hurley shoots a basket.

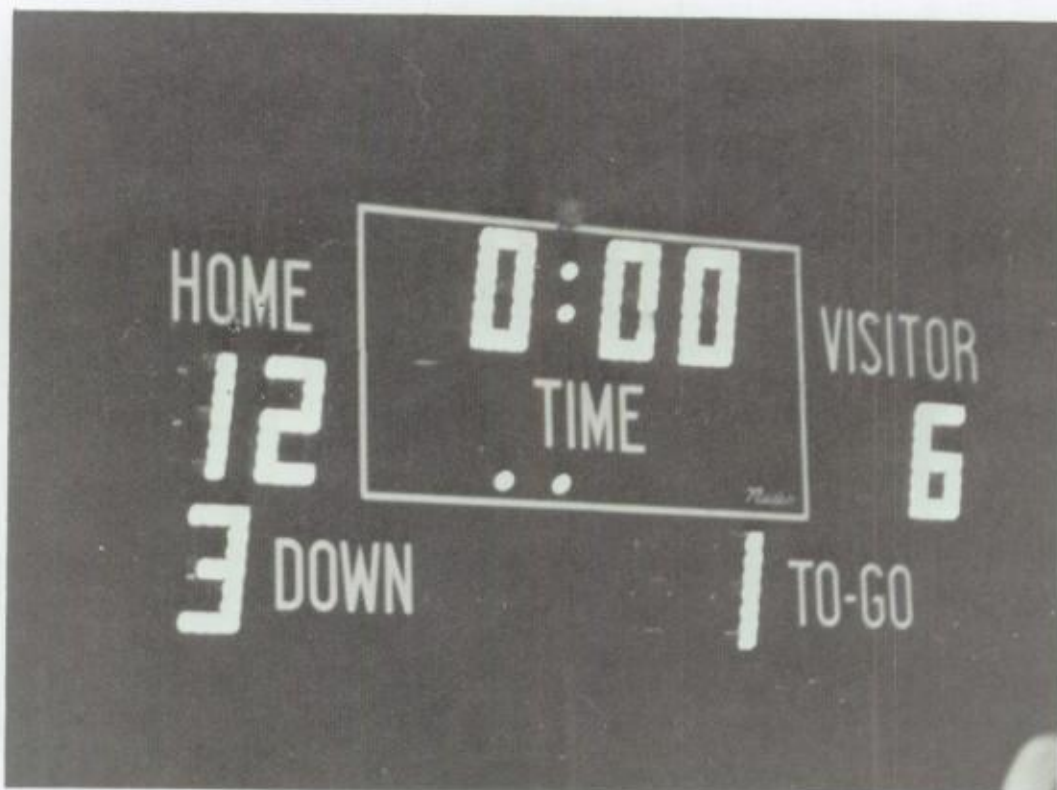

The Frosh Basketballers were victims of many close game losses which were from comebacks that fell short. These close losses really piled up the bulk of their games on the loss side of the ledger. The team was typical for falling behind early in the game and making a furious comeback near the end.

Coach Linnell commented on their record with this statement, "Injuries and the flu have hurt us in a number of ball games. We have had as many as 4 players hurting, with badly sprained ankles and one cracked foot!"

HOMECOMING '75: "ONE OF THESE NIGHTS"

The selection of Homecoming royalty was Thursday, October 30, 1975. That morning, royalty candidates attended a brunch with the judges, Mr. Al Milotte, Mrs. Earl Widoner, and Mrs. Frank Valenta. For the second year in a row the Homecoming assembly was held in the evening.

The theme for Homecoming 1975 was "One of These Nights," and the gym was decorated to this theme by Girls' Club.

Vicki Chacon was Mistress of Ceremonies, Bill Clinkingbeard was the Escort. After a welcome by Mr. Johnsen and some songs, Mr. Young announced Lisa Uhls as Queen, and Mike Whitaker as King.

MANY PARTICIPATE IN SPIRIT WEEK

College Prep in the 1950's?

Spirit Week started the Homecoming festivities for 1975. Tuesday October 28 was the first day with Scrub Day. Wednesday was 50's Day. Thursday was Dress-Alike day. Friday was Halloween, so it was chosen as Halloween Costume Day. In the afternoon an assembly was held. There was a pumpkin carving contest which the sophomores won. During lunch periods all through Spirit Week the cheerleaders held a contest to see which one of them collected the most money. Filomena Talens won the contest; her prize was a kiss from a pig. Bill Kilwine won the prize of five dollars for the best costume.

BAND ON THE RUN

The band started out the year practicing precision marching for half-time shows during football games. Members wore for the first year their complete new uniforms.

Activities planned for the year were the Seamount League Band Festival at Peninsula, an exchange concert, and at least 2 parades.

Members of band were chosen for special honors; Linda Eilers went to Europe on the American Youth Concert. Kevin Hanson will go there during the summer of 1976. Kerry Heisserman and Cindy Skeels were selected for the All-State Band. Wolfgang Nieberle was selected for the All-State Orchestra. Mr. Cleasby also expected some members to be chosen for the Seamount League Honor Band and the All Northwest Band.

Director Gary Cleasby commented about the year by saying, "This is one of the most enjoyable bands I've ever had the privilege of directing."

HONOR SOCIETY MAKES THE GRADE

Advisor Mr. Bill Hodder

The Honor Society has been active in many ways this year. It has sponsored the alumni Tea for Homecoming, taken the seniors to colleges to seek the college of their choice, had exchanges with other Honor Societies in the Seamount League, and have had fund raising programs.

The Honor Society is a club with much pride. It makes a person feel good inside to say, "I'm in Honor Society," because it is a club that recognizes a person's outstanding scholastic achievement. To be in Honor Society, one must have at least a 3.0 grade point average.

During the past year the F.F.A. has been busy with many things. Members took time out during July to attend the King County Fair which was held in Enumclaw. The F.F.A. then went on to participate in Puyallup's Western Washington State Fair in September. Members took part in showing their animals, plants, and crafts. Most members took honors in many events. F.F.A. also had a greenhouse exhibit built by members and their advisor. For the enjoyment of the members and their friends a snow party was held. Fund raising events were selling apples from Yakima and books called THE GROWING OF AMERICA, with F.F.A. members' names in it.

T'KOPECHUCK CLASS IS NEW

This was a year of firsts for the T'KOPECHUCK. For the first year we had color pages, class time to work on it, and a new advisor, Mrs. Jennifer Leach. This was also the first time that any of the class, except the Photographers, had worked on the T'KOPECHUCK staff.

At the beginning of the year the student body was given the opportunity to decide whether it wanted color pages at a higher purchase price or all black and white as have been used in the past. An overwhelming number of students voted for the color pages.

PROBLEMS PLAGUE RIVER RAP

THE RIVER RAP staff suffered a number of setbacks early in the year, delaying the first issue of the Rap until November.

However, because of the delay, a 16 page double issue was sent out to all students of White River.

"The Rap" changed format this year. Rather than the usual newspaper format, "The Rap" changed to a news magazine, covering more feature articles. In the first issue Christy Albert researched and wrote an article on a person's rights in the event of a police search or frisk. Another interesting article on "Mercy Killing" was written by Daryl Clark.

Editor-in-chief was Annette Whitmore; Assistant Ed. was Elizabeth Pettitt; Sports Editor was Tom McFadden; Feature Editor was Christy Albert; Exchange Editor was Carol Maris. Sallie Ellis was the advisor.

Key Club is a school and community service organization which is sponsored by the Buckley Kiwanis. Being associated with the Kiwanis enables the Key Club to do many things that other school clubs cannot, such as arranging all-city dances and engaging in large scale fund raising efforts. Key Club assisted the Fire Department's drive for a new aid car by donating $350 to the fund. They also became involved in many community projects such as the Fiddler's contest and the Food Basket program for the needy. Other activities included sponsoring the Harlem Clowns for raising money towards the scholarship fund and assisting the Kiwanis in putting up the town Christmas tree.

SPADES DONATE FREE TIME

Some Spades enjoy lunch.

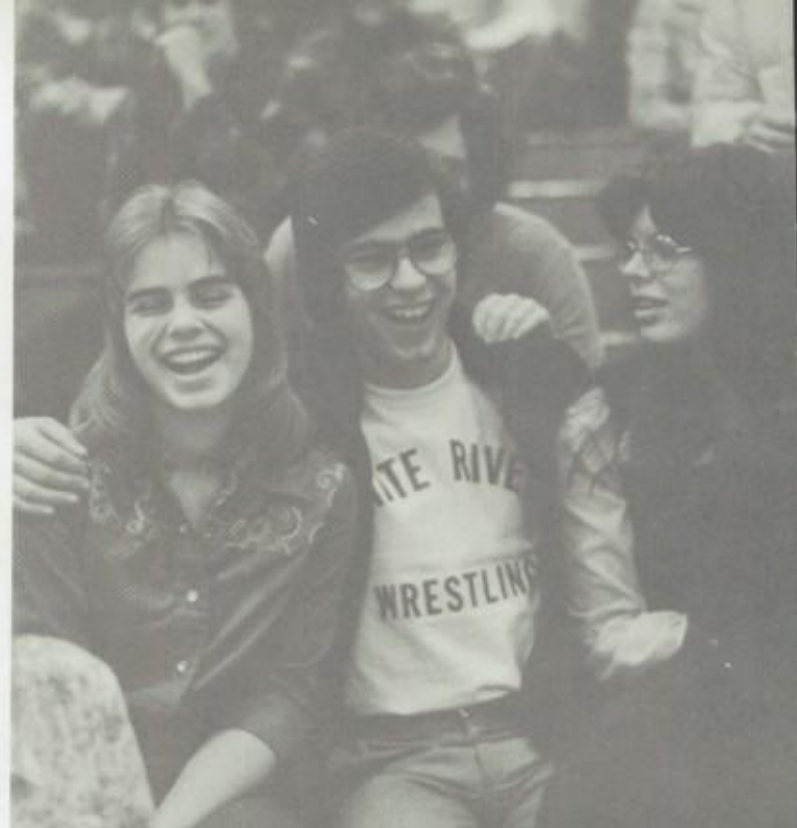

Spades or Special Aides have kept busy throughout the '75-'76 school year. For their first project they went to the University of Washington Birth Defects Center to hear a lecture. Next they babysat for a Vietnamese family so that the parents could go to English night classes at WR. As a group, the Spades have volunteered at the Enumclaw Memorial Hospital, Bethesda Nursing Home, and helped with several parties at Rainier School. Members also volunteered individually at various other hospitals and institutions.

As usual, the Seniors were involved in many activities during the year, including the usual harassment of Freshmen (which lead to a separate Freshmen lunch period) and sponsoring the first dance of both the football and basketball seasons. They also participated in a field trip in which they went to Green River Community College to attend college conferences. The Seniors of "76" organized the usual graduation necessities such as ordering caps and gowns and announcements. They also participated in the traditional Senior breakfast and graduation parties. Over all, it was a great year for the SENIORS OF 1976.

BICENTENNIAL MAKES '76 SPECIAL

Perry Patson's back window displays his patriotism.

Besides celebrating our nation's 200th birthday with many television specials, celebrations, and visits to the Freedom Train, we welcomed our country's latest group of immigrants, the Vietnamese refugees. These people reminded us of our country's heritage, helping to place more importance on the United States' 200th year.
